Elf C2 is the new version of the popular Micro USB flashlight with lamp mode.

It features simple operation and a universal socket for convenient charging at home, in the office or outdoors.

Multifunctional model with up to 1100 lumens output and up to 105 meters beam distance for outdoor recreation, sports, renovation and professional use. Elf C2 works for record 6.5 months in minimum brightness mode and unlimited time as a lamp flashlight – without batteries, directly from any USB power source. Universal charging slot eliminates the need to constantly carry the charger around: everyone owns a Micro USB cable. Built-in magnet for fixing to metal surfaces, removable clip and headmount are included.
