Description

Berghaus Tactical MMPS CENTURIO IV 30 FA IR Military Backpack, Stone Grey Olive

The MMPS Centurio IV 30 FA - IR, is a second generation MMPS FA backpack, designed for versatility and durability. This pack features internal loops for attaching FLT accessories and a robust coil zipper in the FA compartment. Made from Cordura 1100 dtex fabric, it offers superior strength and meets the high standards set by the Bundeswehr. Its aluminum internal frame provides excellent support for carrying heavy loads with comfort.

Key Features

- Cyclops II back-system: Provides excellent load-bearing support for long missions.
- Internal (removable) aluminum frame: Adds structure and support, making it easier to carry heavy loads.
- Back panel with ventilation channel: Ensures airflow and comfort during prolonged use.
- Front Access (FA): Quick access to contents with front zipper entry.
- Hidden mesh pocket: Located in the front access panel to store a helmet or jacket externally.
- Hydration system compatible: Designed to accommodate hydration bladders.
