Description

The Boker Vollintegral XL is the big brother of the Boker Vollintegral, which has been tried and tested for many years, and meets the request we often have for a larger version. The impressive satin -finished 440C blade is finished with a flat grind that further maximizes the blade's stability. The steel is ice-hardened to 58 to 59 HRC and is therefore also suitable for larger game, whether in Northern Europe or overseas. The knife, drop-forged from one piece of steel, has elaborately contoured handle scales made from certified imported rosewood provided, which always lie securely in the hand. The hand guard and pommel are rounded to optimize appearance and hand position. Supplied with a high-quality brown leather sheath. Handcrafted in the Boker knife factory in Solingen.
