Description

Every year, speculoos, wonderfully fragrant gingerbread and other tempting treats ring in the reflective Christmas season. To sweeten the agonizingly long time until the presents, Böker presents an extremely low-calorie, but iron-containing treat that really has it all. The Böker Plus Advent Calendar 2023 contains a complete kit for a high-quality and fully functional pocket knife, which is already waiting quite impatiently for its assembly. Santa Claus this time is Raphaël Durand, who has the Böker Plus Slack as a special backlock variant in his luggage. The elegant pocket knife goes back to the classic Navajas from the Mediterranean region and receives a contemporary interpretation from the French knifemaker. The extensive package includes different blades, variant handle scales, clips, tools and a few small surprises. A set - and even more possibilities to assemble his own individual folding knife. The Böker Plus pocket knife will thus certainly become a real highlight in any knife collection and the perfect gift for any knife fan. Strictly limited and including detailed step-by-step instructions.
