Description

The pocket knife is equipped with a ball-bearing stonewash blade made of D2, which has an elaborate grinding pattern and is easily opened with a flipper. A stable liner lock handles the locking, while corrugations in the area of the thumb rest also increase work safety. The gray grip body made of three-dimensionally milled aluminum is equipped with ergonomic finger recesses and an elegant wooden inlay. With decorative screws, lanyard hole and milled clip (tip-up/r).
