Description

The Duffel bag is made of waterproof material, has a classic tubular shape with a large upper opening, an internal mesh pocket under the flap and an external one on the front, suitable for multiple uses and appreciated by travelers for its ergonomics and capacity.

Designed to be carried in multiple ways, as a duffel bag carrying it with the two side handles or with the adjustable and padded shoulder strap or as a backpack while on the move with the padded, removable and adjustable shoulder straps, hidden in the pocket with strap closure above the flap. The D-shaped opening allows you to immediately see what is inside and the 4 compression straps help to close the duffel.
