Description

The Arne line from Italy is significant in beauty and utility. Combined with the beautiful ziricote wood and fine steel, these are wonderful items for any kitchen.

Each blade is constructed of one-piece stainless steel from Sandvik/Sweden. It has been proven in millions of applications and is significantly superior to conventional chef's knife steels in terms of hardness and edge-holding characteristics. The handle scales of the full-tang design are fabricated from attractive ziricote wood, feel exceedingly good to the touch, while also providing an appealing, warm contrast to the cool, Nordic blade design.
