A smart outdoor leather glove with waterproof X Dry technology and touchscreen forefinger and thumb.

1-4 Weeks

Description

The Aspect Glove is a thoughtfully designed smart outdoor leather glove. Touchscreen technology has been added to the forefinger and thumb making it easier to keep in touch when you are out and about. This stylish glove has our X Dry waterproof technology and is made from goat leather with water resistance to keep you protected from the elements. A durable suede palm and pre-curved finger construction have been included in the design for added grip and dexterity. With added knuckle protection detail and a brushed cosy lining, the Aspect Glove is a perfect choice this season whether you are walking in the hills or on your daily commute.
