Description

10oz Primaloft insulation and a luxurious hi-loft fleece lining is used to create a haven of warmth for cold hands. We have added a PU palm and fingers for durability and grip and an easy to use one-handed pull closure around the top of the cuff and a second around the wrist helps to keep out draughts and spindrift. The Torres Peak is a fully waterproof mitt. A perfect mitt to protect hands from cold, wintry weather during a whole host of outdoor activities.
