Description

Fallkniven A1Pro Survival Knife, Lam. CoS Steel

The Fallkniven A1Pro is the pinnacle of professional survival knives. This is the standard edition, including only the knife, a Zytel sheath, and our regular 10-year warranty. Engineered for unparalleled quality, durability, and performance, the A1Pro sets a new world standard for survival knife excellence.

With a blade made of laminated cobalt steel (Lam. CoS) and a durable Thermorun handle, the A1Pro is designed to excel in extreme conditions. Whether you're tackling fine tasks or heavy-duty cutting, this knife is built to perform flawlessly.

Key Features

- Upgraded from laminated VG10 steel to laminated cobalt steel (Lam. CoS) for superior edge retention and durability.
- Thicker blade for increased torsional rigidity to endure extreme external forces.
- Full-length tapered tang, wider and thicker for enhanced strength.
- Stainless steel crossguard permanently welded to the tang for added safety.
- Refined convex blade edge for improved cutting performance.
- Redesigned Zytel sheath, durable and Molle-compatible for versatile attachment.
