Description

Fallkniven GPdi Premium Folding Knife, Desert Ironwood, Lam. CoS Steel

The GPdi is a premium gentleman's pocket knife crafted with a blade of laminated cobalt steel (Lam. CoS) and a handle made from durable desert ironwood. Known for its exceptional hardness and density, desert ironwood is not only visually striking but also incredibly resilient, making it an ideal choice for a high-quality folding knife.

A suede pouch (GPep) is included for safe storage and portability. Please note that natural variations in pattern and shades may occur in the wooden handles, adding unique character to each knife.

Features

- Blade Material: Laminated cobalt steel (Lam. CoS) for superior edge retention and durability.
- Handle Material: Desert ironwood, a heavy and hard wood that is naturally water-resistant.
- Blade Lock: Reliable liner-lock system for secure and easy operation.
- Adjustable blade inertia thanks to the threaded blade bolt, allowing
