Description

Fallkniven PXLx Folding Knife, Lam. CoS Steel

The Fallkniven PXLx is a robust and reliable folding knife designed for versatility and durability. As a further development of the popular PXLwh, the PXLx introduces a strong pocket clip for added functionality. Its laminated cobalt special (CoS) steel blade offers exceptional sharpness and edge retention, making it ideal for demanding tasks. With its proven liner-lock mechanism and one-handed operation via a thumb stud, the PXLx is a practical choice for professionals and outdoor enthusiasts alike.

Key Features

- High-Performance Blade: Laminated CoS steel provides exceptional sharpness and long-lasting edge retention.
- Flat Ground Edge: Offers precision cutting for a wide range of tasks.
- Proven Liner-Lock Mechanism: Ensures secure blade locking in the open position for safe and reliable use.
- One-Handed Operation: Convenient thumb stud allows for easy folding and opening with a single hand.
- Durable Handle: Made from Grilon, a highly reliable and robust plastic material.
- Integrated Pocket Clip: Adds portability and ensures the knife is always within easy reach.
