Fallkniven S1x Survival Knife, Lam. CoS Steel

The Fallkniven S1x is the ultimate survival knife, built to be the strongest, sharpest, and safest stainless steel knife in production. Designed to endure extreme stresses, this knife is virtually indestructible when used as a precision tool. Whether you are in the wilderness or facing life-threatening situations, the S1x is a reliable companion that you can always trust.

The heart of the S1x lies in its laminated cobalt steel blade, known for its exceptional strength and edge retention. Combined with a hand-shaped convex edge and a design that eliminates break zones, the S1x sets a new standard for durability, safety, and comfort.

Features

- Blade: Laminated cobalt steel (Lam. CoS) with a satin finish or Tungsten Carbide blade coating for the black version.
- Edge: Convex grind for superior cutting performance and durability.
- Tang: Full tang construction for maximum strength.
- Handle: Thermorun material for a secure and ergonomic grip.
- Sheath: Advanced Zytel sheath with a transport lock and working safety detail for secure and versatile carrying.
