Description

Fallkniven TK5L Hunting Knife, 3G Steel

Introducing the Fallkniven TK5L "de Lux Hunter", an exceptional knife designed for the experienced hunter who values precision and craftsmanship. With its compact size and droppoint blade, this knife is perfect for clearing game without cutting through membranes or guts, provided the correct technique is applied. The TK5L is not just a hunting tool—its Swedish minimalist design and ergonomic build make it an elegant and functional companion for outdoor enthusiasts.

Key Features

- 3G Steel Blade: Laminated powder steel with a sintered core for unparalleled edge retention and corrosion resistance.
- Compact Design: A well-balanced three-finger knife with a droppoint blade, perfect for controlled and precise cuts.
- Premium Handle: Crafted from durable Desert Ironwood, offering natural beauty and a secure grip. Requires minimal maintenance—just a drop of furniture cream occasionally.
- Exclusive Packaging: Delivered in an elegant gift box, making it an excellent choice for collectors or as a gift.
- Stainless Steel Guard: Ensures safety and durability during use.
