Other Useful Information

The EDC Side Bag bridges the gap between a small shoulder bag and a full-sized field pack. Its relatively compact size makes it ideal for urban commuting, short trips and travel, while the internal configuration and VIS compatibility offer tactical-level customization. The hidden pocket allows discreet carry of a firearm, or can be repurposed for emergency gear, first aid items or sensitive electronics.

Laser-cut MOLLE/PALS provides modern, low-profile mounting points, reducing weight and bulk compared to classic stitched webbing. Combined with Woojin hardware and YKK zippers, the bag is built to withstand intensive everyday use.

Glossary of Terms

- EDC (Everyday Carry): The set of tools and items carried daily to handle common tasks and emergencies.
- Cordura®: A brand of highly durable nylon fabric known for abrasion and tear resistance.
- MOLLE/PALS: Modular Lightweight Load-carrying Equipment / Pouch Attachment Ladder System - standard webbing system for attaching pouches and accessories.
- VIS (Versatile Insert System): Helikon-Tex system of hook-and-loop mounted inserts, pockets and organizers.
- Concealed carry: Discreet carriage of a firearm on the body or in equipment, subject to local laws.
