Description

Latvian Flag for Mast - 1 x 2 m

This 1 x 2 m Latvian flag is ideally suited for use on masts. Carefully crafted from high-quality gabardine fabric, it is highly resistant to weather conditions. The flag is sewn with thick threads to ensure durability and longevity. It features a reinforced band on the mast side and a carabiner, making it easy to secure the flag and maintain stability even in strong winds.

Description and History of the Latvian Flag

The Latvian flag is one of the oldest flags in Europe, symbolizing Latvia's independence, strength, and unity. The flag design consists of two carmine-red stripes with a white stripe in the center. This unique "Latvian red" color represents courage and freedom, while the white stripe signifies purity and honesty.

The roots of the Latvian flag can be traced back to the 13th century, when it was first mentioned in the Livonian Rhymed Chronicle. In 1918, after gaining independence, the Latvian flag became the country's official symbol. Following the end of the occupation period, the flag was once again
