Description

Easy and quick to assemble folding grill with large grilling surface. Simply open the grill, hook in the side walls and insert the charcoal and grill grate. The grilling fun can begin in no time at all. Alternatively, the grill can also be used as a fire bowl. Due to the solid construction, it is very robust and stands very stable and the large grilling surface offers enough space for all kinds of grilled food. The charcoal is ideally ventilated by the charcoal grate and the side recesses on the grill, so that the hot embers are not long in coming. The grill grate can be easily lifted with the included grate lifter to add more charcoal. The nylon carrying bag is included in the scope of delivery.
