Description

Sturdy thermal container with extra grip thanks to a soft-touch surface. The bulges on the lid and base also make opening easier. The ergonomic and perforated handle makes it easier to carry and offers an additional fastening option. The thread of the container is compatible with other containers from the same series and can therefore be expanded as required to form a kind of tower. Equipped with a hinged stainless steel spoon in the container bottom. The large opening makes it easy to fill, eat and clean. Ideal for outdoors, school and work, it keeps your food warm for a long time or cold for a long time.
