Description

Origin Outdoors Stainless Steel Canteen Cup 2-in-1 - 0.7 L Mug & Cooking Pot

The Origin Outdoors Stainless Steel Canteen Cup 2-in-1 is a versatile piece of outdoor cookware designed for use as both a mug and a cooking pot. Its classic kidney shape allows it to fit neatly around standard canteens while remaining practical as a standalone cup or pot.

Made from robust stainless steel, the cup features folding handles for safe handling and compact transport. A hanging bracket allows the cup to be suspended above a campfire, while the included lid improves heating efficiency and reduces cooking time.

Whether used for boiling water, heating meals or enjoying a hot drink, this canteen cup is a reliable companion for camping, hiking, bushcraft and military-style outdoor use.

Key Features

- 2-in-1 design: usable as mug and cooking pot
- Durable stainless steel construction
- Classic kidney shape - ideal for canteen compatibility
- Folding handles for secure grip and compact storage
- Hanging bracket for use above open fire
- Lid included for faster and more efficient heating
