Description

Origin Outdoors Stainless Steel Kettle - 1.0 L Camping Kettle with Foldable Handle

The Origin Outdoors Stainless Steel Kettle is a durable and compact solution for preparing hot drinks and boiling water outdoors. Designed for camping, hiking and bushcraft use, it combines robust stainless steel construction with practical, space-saving features.

The kettle features a foldable handle with a removable heat-protection sleeve secured by a Velcro fastener. This allows safe handling during use and compact storage during transport. Thanks to its high heat resistance, the kettle is suitable for use on campfires and camping stoves.

A removable lid allows easy filling, improves heating efficiency and helps keep contents warm for longer. With its compact dimensions and 1.0 liter capacity, this kettle is ideal for preparing tea, coffee or meals on the go.

Key Features

- Durable stainless steel construction
- Foldable handle for space-saving transport
- Removable handle protection with Velcro fastener
- Heat-resistant, suitable for campfire and stove use
- Removable lid for efficient heating
