Description

Sealskinz Beetley Waterproof All Weather Head Gaitor

The Sealskinz Beetley Waterproof All Weather Head Gaitor is a lightweight yet protective head covering designed for cold and windy outdoor environments. Built with three-layer Aquasealz™ waterproof technology, it keeps the head and face dry while maintaining breathability during active use.

A soft microfleece inner lining provides warmth and comfort without excessive heat build-up, helping regulate temperature during high-intensity activities. The flexible design allows the gaitor to be worn in multiple ways, including as a balaclava, neck gaitor or face covering.

Designed for demanding outdoor conditions, the Beetley gaitor is suitable for skiing, trekking, mountaineering, mountain biking and other activities where protection from wind, rain and cold is essential.
