- Pre-curved finger construction improving flexibility and natural movement
- Microfleece inner lining delivering warmth and comfort
- Lightweight all-weather design suitable for outdoor activities and everyday use

Three-Layer Construction

- Outer Layer: Durable synthetic fabric with pre-curved design and PU suede palm for grip.
- Middle Layer: Aquasealz™ waterproof membrane allowing moisture vapour to escape while blocking external water.
- Inner Layer: Soft microfleece lining that enhances warmth and comfort.

Design and Performance

The Harling gloves combine weather protection with flexibility and durability. The breathable waterproof membrane keeps hands dry while allowing internal moisture to escape, helping maintain comfort during active use.

The PU suede palm improves grip on tools, trekking poles and outdoor equipment, while touchscreen compatibility allows the user to operate smartphones or navigation devices without removing the gloves.
