Description

The designs from knife expert Michael Janich have elevated the Wharncliffe blade to respectability. This special blade shape is characterized in that the full cutting force extends from the edge to the point and facilitates optimized blade point control due to the straight line, in particular for detailed cutting chores. The full tang design employs a solid billet of CTS BD1, paired with riveted black G10 scales and a pronounced finger groove for maximum grip safety during dynamic maneuvers. Includes premium boltaron sheath that facilitates a customized carry.

Spyderco

The first pocket knife from Spyderco has been manufactured in 1981, even back then they used the so called "Spyderhole", a round hole in the blade. With the help of the hole, the knives can be opened very easily and fast by only using the thumb of the leading hand. During the years Spyderco has become one of the world leading brands and is now worldwide the supplier of different emergency forces from the police and military. Countless innovations, perfect workmanship and using the best materials guarantee top drawer products.
