Description

Templar's Gear SAW 100 Full Flap QR Pouch

The Templar's Gear SAW 100 Full Flap QR Pouch is designed to securely hold a 100-round M249 SAW drum while maintaining exceptional versatility as a general-purpose utility pouch. Precision-engineered for professional use, it combines rugged durability with smart modular design to meet the highest tactical standards.

Constructed from Cordura® 500D-based laminate reinforced with a polymer stiffener, the pouch retains its shape under load and delivers outstanding abrasion resistance. The material is treated for infrared reflection (IRR), ensuring low visibility in night operations. Inside, Velcro panels on both sides enable flexible attachment of internal dividers or organizers, allowing you to customize the storage layout according to mission needs. The full flap lid provides complete environmental protection for your gear and can be closed either with a quick-release buckle or with Velcro for faster access. At the bottom, an additional MOLLE row expands your attachment options, allowing integration with other pouches or accessories for enhanced modularity.

Key Features

- Fits 100-round M249 SAW drum or serves as a multipurpose utility pouch
